Sir,

I have the honor to forward for submission to the Chief Commissioner, a Roll of 22 men of the 4th Regiment Mysore Horse, who have elected for Gratuity under the late orders for reduction, and to report that I purpose discharging them from the 1st Proximo.—

2. As these men are in the prime of life but unwilling to remain in the service, it is desirable to discharge them at once, and to fill up their places in the Regiment by transferring young men from other Regiments, with whom instruction

3. With regard to the men who elect for pension, I think that the measure of reduction will fall less hard upon them, if they be permitted to remain in the service till the expiration of the allotted period, or till the 1st December, and then be absent off; and this I propose doing, if it meets the approval of the Chief Commissioner. In the meantime they will be exempted monthly duties and take the Regimental Roads alone. —

With reference to Docket No. 4646 of the 14th November 1873 requests the officiating Chief Commissioner under the circumstances explained to move the Deputy Accountant General to pay the gratuities now struck out to men under five years service.

I do not know what Col Meade may have said in private conversation to the Military Asst but I think the D.A.G. is right & that no minimum of gratuity should be allowed. If the Military Asst's principle were allowed to hold good a Sillidar who had only served a month would get a gratuity equal to three months pay

12th Sept 1873 issued by the Military Asst to the Regimental Clerks of the Mysore Horse it was stated (para 1) that "any man who has served 5 years or under will be entitled to 3 months pay". It is true that an order was subsequently issued by the Chief Commr in supersession of this Circular - but in the letter which enumerated on the Circular order Colonel Meade makes no allusion to the minimum gratuity - and as he notices other points I think he would have corrected this had he objected to the principle. Major Stewart now states that on the part of Colonel Meade verbally it was said which he has told the Silladars that none shall be such minimum gratuity. I am myself of opinion that such minimum gratuity is politic & not unfair. In a few instances men discharged will receive a little more than on the short rate of proportion they would be entitled to - but the amount sett on the aggregate be small, & in such case it is not to be a little liberal. —

With reference to your Docket No. 4646/89 of the 14th November 1873 enclosing copy of letter from the Deputy Accountant General striking out portions of gratuities to men under five years service, I have the honor to state that such is not in accordance with the orders of the Chief Commissioner. —

2. On a reference to the correspondence on the subject of the present reduction, I do not find anything recorded, but from frequent conversations with Colonel Meade I know it to have been his wish that the minimum of gratuity claimable for a man wishing his discharge should be three months pay, and I have assured the sillahdars that such will

I request the officiating Chief Commissioner will be so good as to move the Deputy Accountant General to pay the gratuities now struck out. —

Order thereon - No. 1995/1425 dated 3d December 1873.

The Offg Chief Comm.r observes that in the Circular, issued dated 12th Sept 1873, issued by the Mily Assistant to the Regimental Dars of the Mysore Horse, it was stated in Rule I that "Any man who has served five years or under will be entitled to 3 months pay" as a gratuity. An Order was subsequently issued by the Chief Comm.r in supersession of the above Circular, but in the communication which accompanies it Colonel Meade makes no allusion to the minimum gratuity, and as other points are noticed therein the Offg Chief Comm.r thinks that the rules have been corrected and Colonel Meade objected to the principle. -
